Phoenix Auction Firm, Auction Systems Auctioneers & Appraisers Inc., Updates Radio Network's Automation System and Programming

Phoenix, AZ. June 23, 2010 –Phoenix auction firm Auction Systems Auctioneers & Appraisers Inc., has recently updated the automation system and the programming of Auction Systems Radio Network.

The Auction Systems Radio Network is a live auction radio network that Auction Systems broadcasts over the Internet. The station's programming includes live auctions like Phoenix Police and business liquidation auctions and the greatest hits from the 50s, 60s, 70s, 80, 90s and today.

“Auction Systems is very excited about the recent updates to the Auction Systems Radio Network's programming and automation system,” said Deb Weidenhamer, CEO of Auction Systems Auctioneers & Appraisers, Inc. “The new system drastically improves the quality and content of our broadcasts.”

The Auction Systems Radio Network has recently upgraded to a new automation system called Digital Jukebox. This new automation system adds a couple key features including: Automatic Start-up that works in case of a power outage the system will reboot itself to begin playing where it left off, voice tracking that will give ASRN a more “Live Sound” with announcers being able to talk between songs, weather and temperature announcements and a “Now playing” feature that shows what song is currently playing on the site.

The Auction Systems Radio Network has also made a number of updates to its programming. The network will be adding a daily news and commentary show each week day morning, a 60 second profile of America, a 60 second mental health update and a 60 second health report.

The Auction Systems Radio Network's main thrust is to promote Auction Systems and auction events in Arizona but they also aim to provide a full service radio station. They are not just a music or talk station but provide several means of entertainment for their listeners. Phoenix auction firm, Auction Systems, believes this full service format appeals to a much broader base and provides something for all auction lovers.
